

Jan's Journal

Welcome to the fifth Sunday of Easter and the first Sunday in May! It hasn't felt much like May in the past week, though, has it?

As we continue to follow the development of Jesus' followers' understanding of their new role in the world, and the development of the church of "The Way," we consider the foundation of our faith. We can become the living stones which God uses to build a spiritual home for all God's people. Jesus promises to show us the way!

If you are interested in reading scripture in advance, the lectionary readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter are:

Psalm 31: 1-5; 15-16 Acts 7: 55-60 1 Peter 2: 2-10 John 14: 1-14

The third session of the Fresh Start Program will take place this Tuesday, May 9th at 7 p.m. on Zoom. You do not need to have attended the previous two sessions to participate in Session 3. The topic for Tuesday is : "Power, Authority, and Influence." Please contact Morgan to request the Zoom link, if this is your first session.

May 21st (Victoria Day weekend) will be a Hymn Sing service led by Reverend Harold Wells, Carolyn Wilson, Sam and the choir. This is your opportunity to request your favourite hymns! Please submit your requests to me by e-mail at revjanmcc@gmail.com, or by writing the title on a slip of paper and dropping it in my sparkle box, which you will find on the table in the Gathering Place, next to the Guest Book. You have until May 14th to submit your requests.

As always, I am interested in hearing your thoughts!

You can reach me at: revjanmcc@gmail.com or on my cell phone: 905-630-8202.

Blessings,

Pastor Jan
