Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

“Concluding this final gospel account from David's life, and having seen how God provides a Mediator for sinners and an altar for the forgiveness of sin, we find that the message today is that in this divine provision we find a place for our salvation. William Cowper's hymn rightly proclaims that we do not find salvation at a specific locale, such as Araunah's threshing floor or the temple that was later built there. Instead, we find a place for salvation wherever we are through a trusting faith that looks to the cross of Jesus Christ:

Jesus, where'er Thy people meet,
There they behold Thy mercy seat;
Where'er they seek Thee Thou art found,
And ev'ry place is hallowed ground.”
