Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OUR CONFESSION - NEW HAMPSHIRE 1833

XVI. Of the Civil Government We believe that civil government is of divine appointment, for the interests and good order of human society; and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored, and obeyed; except only in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the kings of the earth.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

“The psalmist gives us a prayer and a path to follow:

O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come. (Ps. 71:17–18)

Some may be tempted to think that the call to finish well is only relevant to men and women in their eighties or nineties, but the preparation actually begins much earlier. Godly character and habits that are developed over many years are the patterns that emerge in old age and that influence younger believers in unforgettable ways. The need for faithfulness in the second half of life is too important to wait until it is too late. So, the plea is simple: show us how to begin now to finish well.” ~ Ligonier Ministries
