Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OUR CONFESSION - NEW HAMPSHIRE 1833

XIV. Of Baptism and the Lord's Supper - We believe that the Christian baptism is the immersion in water of a believer, into the name of the Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost; to show forth in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in the crucified, buried and risen Saviour, with its effect, in our death to sin and resurrection to a new life; that it is prerequisite to the privileges of a church relation, and to the Lord's Supper[4]; in which the members of the church by the sacred use of bread and wine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ; preceded always by solemn self-examination.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

“In their fellowship with David, the valiant thirty also gained a name and renown for themselves. We are not told what most of them did, although the people of their time presumably celebrated many great deeds. We do know that they were faithful servants of the covenant crown, that they protected the anointed David and enlarged his conquests, and that the Spirit of God did not overlook their exploits. So it will be in the much larger roster of the valiant servants of Christ. Jesus said of all his people who persevere in faith: “The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels” (Rev. 3:5).” ~ R. Phillips (REC).
