BUILDING BRIDGES

Through Understanding the Village©

- an experiential workshop

- come explore & revive the thousand year old beautifully functional values of Indigenous villages
- explore, experience, consider effects of Residential Schools & Canada's Policy of Assimilation
- atmosphere of non-shame, non-blame inviting all to become part of the healing
- inspired by Jann Derrick's teachings & book "The Circle and The Box"

"a deeply moving experience" "so much love, support, and wisdom in the room"
"an incredible tool for education and healing."

Kathi Camilleri

A CULTURAL SAFETY PRACTITIONER, WORKSHOP FACILITATOR,
KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
SPECIALIST

Kathi Camilleri is an Aboriginal woman who has coordinated healing programs in the Aboriginal Community for over 23 years. With a Master's Degree in Leadership Studies, and training in various therapeutic approaches, she facilitates strategic planning sessions and experiential workshops regarding Canada's Policy of Assimilation and Colonization with social workers, foster parents, health care workers, church groups, all levels of government, students and educators and frontline workers in communities across Canada and the U.S.

Prior to the workshop, participants need to understand that we will be addressing Residential School and its affects in an in-depth way. Participation may trigger unresolved grief and loss issues for some.
