Jan's Journal

Thank you to everyone who wore something orange to worship last Sunday! It was lovely to look at a sea of orange as we acknowledged National Indigenous Peoples' Day.

Thank you to Reverend Harold and Josephine for leading worship this Sunday. I will be leading worship at Hillcrest United Church. I am lookng forward to catching up with former congregants!

Activities are winding down at East Plains as people move into summer activities. But not everything is on summer hiatus! The Coffee and Conversation Group will meet on June 27th, and there is a meeting of the Official Board that evening at 7 p.m.

Unfortunately, the meeting concerning the Out4Lunch Program, which was scheduled for last Wednesday has been postponed to this week, Wednesday, June 28th at St. Matthew's Anglican Church. It will take place at 11 a.m. There was some confusion last week as Rector Susan Wilson needed to switch the meeting from in-person to Zoom and unfortunately, some participants did not get the message. I'm not sure whether any East Plains participants were caught in that mix-up, but if so, I hope that you will come out to the meeting this week.

Next Sunday, July 2, 2023, we will mark Canada Day. Please wear red and white, or something to show that you are a proud Canadian!

As always, I am interested in hearing your thoughts!
