The Reverend Stewart McDonald

Stewart had a twenty-year vocation in finance and accounting before he was ordained into the ministry of word and sacrament in the Lutheran Church in America in 1986. He has served eight congregations in Southwestern Washington State and Southeastern Arizona both as both a called and interim pastor, and has also served as a resource person in mission, outreach and leadership, as a coach and retreat leader, as a spiritual director, and as a director of the Missional Leadership Academy of the Grand Canyon Synod. Stewart retired from full time pastoral ministry in 2013, but still enjoys teaching and preaching at his home congregation in Tucson, Lutheran Church of the Foothills, and at other Lutheran congregations in the area. He also teaches two courses for the Grand Canyon Synod Diakonia program and leads their summer retreat called Exploring Your Spiritual Gifts.

Stewart will lead the Exploring your Spiritual Gifts retreat for Diakonia this August..
