TREASURED

By Michael Orr

Instead of money, fame, or pleasure,
May you, O Lord, remain my treasure.

For often do my human eyes,
Search for unhealthy compromise.
Yet nothing else could ever do,
But make my only treasure You.

Lord, let me find in daily measure,
The faith to keep You as my treasure.

For if I have the bread I need,
And spurn a foolish heart of greed,
I'll find contentment in thanksgiving,
And treasure all that comes with living.

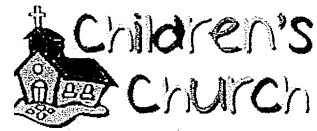

O Father, in my work or leisure,
May all things point to You, my treasure.

For every path my feet may roam,
Reminds me of my journey home.
So may I now more than before,
Make You my treasure evermore.
