Notes from the Elders

Jesus tells us that God watches our faithfulness in the little things before offering us greater responsibilities. Luke 16:10, Matthew 25:23. When our vision of the future is foggy and our lives seem stagnant, scripture makes our purpose clear: be faithful. One day God will lead us to something else, but for now, we can serve diligently where we are placed, trusting in God's greater vision.

Budget 2024, Policies, New Mexico Mission trip, Building repairs, Friends & Family Day, Adult Retreat.

Pray for Today
By Michael Orr

Pray for today, pray for tomorrow,
Pray in your joy and pray in your sorrow.
Pray when the sun casts its first morning light,
Pray in your bed in the dead of the night.

Pray in your plenty and pray in your need,
Pray for the harvest and pray for the seed.
Pray when you lose something precious and dear,
Pray for each gain and the things you hold near.

Pray for your loved ones, all the souls you adore,
Pray for the people who hurt you before.
Pray for the church and the leaders within,
Pray for the world and the fate of all men.

Pray in God's presence, pray in God's will,
Pray in the places too deep to reveal.
Pray to the Father in the name of the Son,
Pray without ceasing till your journey is done.
