

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Gifts of Healings, Part 3 (1 Cor. 12:9)

1. We will now focus on Scriptural accounts of the healing of _____.
2. Read Luke 4:40. Here we see that Jesus ministered to people individually. Each one who He laid His _____ on was _____.
3. Read Matthew 8:1-3. The _____ healing of leprosy could really be considered a _____. Jesus _____ him, and he was immediately _____.
4. One reason Jesus touched the leper was that _____ did not usually _____ them. Jesus' touch also demonstrated _____.
5. Sometimes, the _____ Jesus used in healing were distinctly _____. This shows we must _____ totally on the leading of the _____ in healing.
6. Read Mark 7:32-35. Notice that "Jesus led him _____ from the _____ so they could be _____" (v. 33).
7. Read Mark 8:22-23. Jesus possibly led the man out of town because the atmosphere of _____ there was not conducive for the _____. He was about to do (also read Mt. 13:53-58).
8. Read Mark 8:23-24. The man could _____, but not _____. Not all of Jesus healings were instantaneously _____. Jesus depended, in a measure, on the _____ of _____ in the person he was dealing with.
9. Read Mark 8:25-26. Jesus not only _____ the man out of the town, He also told him not to _____ back into that town and not to _____ anyone in that town about the _____.

10. Read Acts 28:7-9. The Scripture says “_____ healed him.” While no one can be healed apart from _____ and the power of the _____, we are his servants sent to do the _____.
11. Read John 14:12 and Luke 10:9. The Bible puts much more _____ on believers than many are willing to _____.
12. Gifts of healings supernaturally _____ people to physical _____. When such a restoration comes, it is a _____ given _____ the person by whom the gift is manifested.
13. Gifts of healings are accomplished through the resurrection _____ of the Holy Spirit. They can be manifested in an _____ for healing in which _____ are made whole, as well in the healing of specific _____ under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
14. Gifts of healings also result in creating an atmosphere of _____ for additional healing and an _____ to the gospel of Jesus Christ.