The Great Thanksgiving

Scottish Episcopal Church, revised liturgy 2022

Celebrant: Worship and praise belong to you, Creator,
in every place and at all times.
You made us, all the people of the world,
and everything that is.

You give us the daylight.
Your Word lights up our minds.
Jesus was born among us to be light in our darkness.

Your Spirit lives in us
so that we can look at the world with your eyes.

One day we will share your fullness of life,
but already we laugh with the saints and angels,
and sing their joyful song:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Father, you never forget us or turn away from us,
even when we fail you.
You sent your Son Jesus who gave his life for us.

He healed those who were sick,
cared for those who were poor,
and cried with those who were sad.
He forgave sinners and taught us to forgive.

For all your love we give you thanks
in the way that Jesus showed us.

On the night before he died,
while he was having supper with his friends,
he took bread and offered you thanks.
He broke the bread, and gave it to them saying:
“Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine,
he offered you thanks,
and gave it to them saying:
“Drink this, all of you.
This is my Blood of the new covenant;
it is poured out for you, and for all,
that sins may be forgiven.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

So, as we do what he told us,
we open our hearts to him;
we remember how he died
and rose again to live now in us.

Together with him we offer you these gifts:
in them we give you ourselves.

Send your Holy Spirit on us and on this bread and this wine,
that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ,
and that, sharing your life,
we may travel in your company to our journey's end.

With all your people we give you thanks and praise through the Son and in the Spirit, now and for ever.

Amen.

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,
The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant:

"We break this bread to share in the body of Christ."

All : We, being many, are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: thanks be to God

All: Whose power working in us
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
Forever and ever.
Amen.
