

Deadlines for 2021

“News of the Anglican Community”

Stories, feature articles, opinions, prayers, photographs and graphics – are always welcome. We can’t promise that everything will be published - there are space limitations – but we’ll do our best. Stories will be edited for style, length, and tone, in order to maintain a consistent style, and of course they should be of interest to the diocese as a whole.

TOPIC is mailed within the national publication, the Anglican Journal. This arrangement greatly reduces mailing costs (to less than half what it would otherwise be), but it makes for an early deadline. Please check the deadlines below and submit items before or on the deadline date.

November 26	January 2022	Jan. 10, 2022

Please note that events for promotion in the Around the Diocese section need to be scheduled after the 10th of the month. Send material in as soon as you can to ensure your story will be timely. If you are having a special event, let us know about it well in advance. Eight weeks is recommended

It’s helpful if you can call first to let the editor know that the story and/or pictures are coming. Call Randy Murray at (604) 684-6306, ext. 223. For the story itself, e-mail is the current standard method (sent to rmurray@vancouver.anglican.ca) Digital photos (.JPG) are required - resolution must be 180 dpi or higher and photo credits are strongly advised. Please provide the name of a contact person and a phone number or an email address in case there are questions.

It's easy to submit your stories to

It is TOPIC's mission to help Anglicans throughout this diocese tell each other what they're up to throughout the Lower Mainland, Fraser Valley, and up the Sunshine Coast as far as Powell River and beyond. But we need submissions from parishes. Without contributions, we have no way of knowing how your parish is doing and helping to spread the Gospel. Here are some guidelines:

Who can submit articles?

Anyone can. We are pleased to hear from anyone with an interesting item and/or photo(s) to contribute.

What constitutes a desirable article?

Something you're doing in the parish that you want to share with the greater diocese. For example: a new ministry, a fundraiser, compassionate service to the community and beyond, international mission, building renovations for ministry to name a few.

Articles can be about unusual or unique elements related to a common occurrence. For example, the archbishop making her regular visit to the parish is not unusual, but if she is visiting for a special reason, that could make for an interesting article.

Give lots of details. Include a little about the parish itself so people who may never have visited will get a sense of who you are. IMPORTANT!

Send pictures!

As they say, "a picture is worth a thousand words." Especially if the pictures are candid, close-up, well lit, and one to three people! Try not to send a picture of a group of people lined up smiling for the camera. We don't need to see each person head to toe; it's the faces that count. Identify people from left to right. When sending in photographs, please send them at high resolution – 180 pixels per inch at what would be an 8x10" print, is a minimum requirement.

Many of us now exclusively use smart phones to take photographs. When taking a photo indoors remember to position your subject against a neutral or dark background. Do not point the lens toward windows or light sources as the light will be magnified and blow out the subject.

Write about people.

Especially interesting are profiles of people who have contributed significantly to the life of a parish. These may include long time parishioners, newcomers and youth.

How long should an article be?

There is no hard and fast rule. In TOPIC, most feature stories are about two thirds of a page and contain 750 to 1000 words. Write your story as long or as short as you think suitable.

Opinions and Letters are WELCOME

How to submit articles:

It's helpful if you can call first to let the editor know that the story and images are coming. Call Randy Murray at (604) 684-6306, ext. 223.

For the story itself, e-mail is the method (sent to rmurray@vancouver.anglican.ca). Please do not send the story as a PDF. Content in WORD or in the body of an email please.

Deadlines:

TOPIC is a monthly publication. Items must be received no later than the deadlines contained in the accompanying list which is either the last or penultimate Friday of the month for the month-after-next's issue. Earlier is always preferred.

We can't promise that everything will be published - there are space limitations. All stories will be edited for style, length, and tone, in order to maintain consistency.

Send the submissions in as soon as you can to ensure your story will be timely. If you are having a special event such as a fundraiser or reunion, let us know about it a minimum of 8-12 weeks in advance.

If you have immediate news items to share, please send the stories and photos to rmurray@vancouver.anglican.ca for posting on the diocesan website:
www.vancouver.anglican.ca
