“Your Last Walk in the Mosque” details the events of January 29, 2017 when a lone shooter entered a Quebec City mosque, killing 6 and injuring 19 men. This was the first such attack at a place of worship on Canadian soil. Through this powerful documentary film, we witness what impact the shooting had on the families of those who were killed as they share their harrowing reflections of loss and trauma. It also invites us to ponder and work together, ensuring it doesn’t happen again.
