SUPERABUNDANTLY ALIVE: THOMAS MERTON'S DANCE WITH THE FEMININE

Susan will be presenting from the book and engaging with the audience on how Merton's writings and life are especially pertinent at this time. In this context she will be exploring Merton's engagement with both the archetypal feminine (Sophia, divine Wisdom) and the human feminine (Merton's relationships with real women in his life).

Susan McCaslin is the author of fifteen volumes of poetry. She is a Thomas Merton scholar who has recently collaborated with J.S. Porter on a volume of creative non-fiction, Superabundantly Alive: Thomas Merton's Dance with the Feminine (Wood Lake, 2018).
