

Dagenais' Family Update 2023

In a nutshell...

Matt has worked for Tomlinson driving a walking floor transport for 1-year as of this Christmas. He likes the work and is grateful to be able to provide financially for the family.

Cristy is learning the dance of work and home-life as Matt works longer hours. Overall, she enjoys the daily variety and being present for Jesse at the start and end of the day.

Jesse was ready for some social development and started daycare part-time in the spring and full-time in September. He is thriving with his peers at a very nurturing daycare centre.

Together, Matt and I are learning how to be attentive to each other while also being new parents. It's challenging, but we continue to intentionally invest in our marriage and friendship.

We want to send God's blessings to you and your family this Christmas season. We pray that the eyes of your heart would be opened to a greater revelation of God's Kingdom being establish in you and around you. May you and your family be filled with joy as you scatter seed and watch attentively for His harvest!

With Love, Matt, Cristy, & Jesse
