Last words - Chief Robert Joseph

Moderator Dr Madeleine MacIvor

Considering what matters to you and all you love and care for...

- What would help environmental review take values that can't be measured as seriously as those that can?
- How can Aboriginal and religious ceremony and theatre help make reviews safer and more welcoming?
- Can film, art, dance, song and other media convey implications to all ages, cultural and educational levels?
- How can we make this happen?
