

Saturday Seminar

Luther: Let God be God

Five hundred years ago, in a small college town in central Europe, a young Catholic monk and professor of Bible set in motion a religious upheaval that in the end divided the western Christian world between Roman Catholics and Protestants.

At the outset Martin Luther had no such intention. But along his troubled spiritual journey, he came to the bold conclusion that the Church was getting in the way of the Gospel; that Church dogmas and practices were preventing the faithful from hearing the living Word of God.

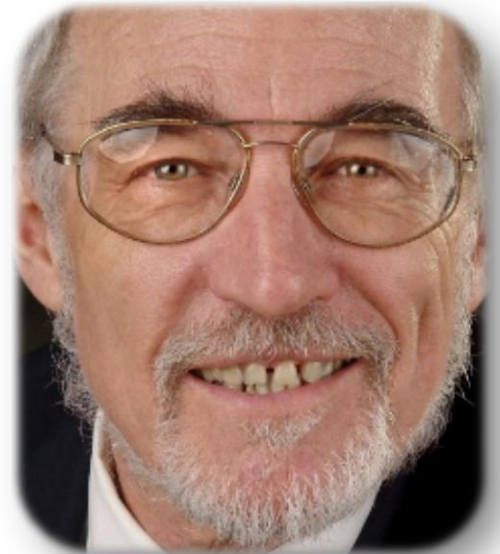

Hear more of the story:

Saturday

November 4th

9:30am – 12:30pm

With the Revd Dr Gerald Hobbs

Holy Trinity Anglican Church

Welcoming ♦ Relevant ♦ Traditional ♦ Evangelical

1440 West 12th Avenue, Vancouver

holytrinityvancouver.org facebook.com/htacv twitter.com/htvancouver