Rev. Dr. Jason Byassee

A bright sadness: Lent and Easter are the source and lifespring of the church. Their return can feel like drudgery and routine rather than delight. But the scriptures and theology and liturgies of these seasons can renew our own souls as well as our churches.

The Rev. Dr. Jason Byassee was most recently senior pastor of Boone United Methodist Church in Boone, North Carolina where he pastored a congregation of 1500 from five worshiping communities. He is the author of six books as well as numerous articles in scholarly journals and magazines. Dr. Byassee has recently been appointed as the inaugural Butler Chair in Homiletics and Biblical Interpretation at Vancouver School of Theology.
