

Call out to youth workers, caregivers, and other interested community members!

Join us for a dynamic presentation by

Dr. Martin Brokenleg

Becoming Who We Are Meant To Be:

building on the inner strengths of Aboriginal and all youth

May 27, 2015, from 9am - 4pm

Musqueam Cultural Centre
4000 Musqueam Avenue (at the foot of Salish Dr)
Vancouver, BC

Contact UNYA to register: $125 until April 30, 2015
$150 after April 30, 2015
(lunch included)

This event sells out each year!
Be sure to register and pay for your seat ahead of time.

Dr. Martin Brokenleg consults worldwide and serves as a Vice President of Reclaiming Youth International, providing training for individuals who work with youth at risk. He holds a doctorate in psychology and is a graduate of the Episcopal Divinity School. He is an Emeritus Professor and was most recently Director of Native Ministries and Professor of Native American Theology and Ministries at the Vancouver School of Theology in Vancouver, BC. For 30 years, Dr. Brokenleg was Professor of Native American studies at Augustana College of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. To find out more about the Circle of Courage, visit www.reclaiming.com.

This event is hosted by the Urban Native Youth Association and the Coming Home Society. 100% of funds raised are dedicated to programming and resources which support young Aboriginal women who are, or are at risk of, homelessness.

Urban Native Youth Association
1618 East Hastings Street, Vancouver BC
604-254-7732 info@unya.bc.ca
www.unya.bc.ca

The
COMING HOME
Society