Celebrating All Saints

You are invited

The community at Christ the Redeemer is happy to invite people from all walks of life and faith traditions to come to celebrate the lives of loved ones, friends, and family, who have passed over from this life to the next.

We are blessed to be caretakers of the oldest church and cemetery in Surrey - at Old McLellan Road and Bell Road.

We are following a tradition that is part of many faiths, to celebrate a Day of the Dead, which is often celebrated on November 1.

When you come to Christ the Redeemer you will be invited to write on a piece of cloth the name of your loved one, and, if you wish, a message for them. You will then be able to tie this piece of cloth to a tree in the graveyard. You are also invited, if you wish, to make a candle holder and place a tea light in the graveyard to celebrate the lives of your loved ones.

We will be offering tours of Christ Church and you are invited to stay in that space after the tour to pray or meditate.

COVID-19 Precautions:

Limit of 50 people onsite at one time

- if you are ill, please do not come
- everyone who comes must sign in with their contact information and sign out when they leave
- face masks must be worn inside buildings
- washrooms are for urgent use only
- please respect physical distancing both indoors and outdoors
