MY CHILD

By Michael Orr

Oh Lord, I am so worthless, nothing but a filthy wretch,
Well my child, He said to me, here's the part you didn't catch.
I have molded you and shaped you, rearranged your very being,
Your ears remade to listen, your eyes remade for seeing.

But Lord I am so sinful, I have failed you every day,
Well my child, He said to me, I'm the true and living Way.
I can show you where you've fallen, pick you up and make it right,
Guide you out of your temptation, help you walk within the light.

But Lord I am so tired, all my strength has turned to dust,
Well my child, He said to me, I'm the one that you should trust.
All My might at your disposal, all My power in your spirit,
Though the world may be against you, there's no reason you should fear it.

But Lord I am so broken, Don't deserve to be made whole,
Well my child, He said to me, I'm the Maker of your soul.
I am greater than the breaking and the things that made you fall,
Put your trust in my redemption, I'm the only All in All.

O Lord, I think I'm ready, but I don't know what to do,
Well my child, He said to me, I will help you see it through.
In the secret place I'll hold you, till you get to Heaven's shore,
Where you'll taste of life eternal in your home forevermore.
