I'm Not Good Enough

By Michael Orr

I'm not good enough upon my reflection,
No matter the measure I use for deflection.
My goodness is lacking, my record is shot,
A long list of failures are all that I've got.

I'm not good enough inside and out,
A heart full of worry, a head full of doubt.
No matter the effort it's never enough,
For the way is too narrow, the path is too rough.

I'm not good enough, not even a bit,
For instead of enduring I just want to quit.
My spirit is empty, my soul in despair.
My hands filled with burdens I don't want to share.

I'm not good enough, but I don't have to be,
For my Savior was offered to justify me.
My sins are forgiven, my heart has been freed,
His Spirit within me has fulfilled every need.

For I'm good enough, made righteous in newness of life.
I'm good enough, freed from a path full of strife.
I'm good enough, walking in Spirit each day,
I'm good enough, for Jesus has shown me the Way.
