A SIX YEAR OLDS PRAYER

Author Unknown

Last week, I took my children to a restaurant. My six year old boy asked if he could say grace. As we bowed our heads, he said “God is good, God is great. Thank you for the food and I would even thank you more if Mom gets us ice cream for dessert. And liberty and justice for all, amen.” Along with the laughter from other customers near by, I heard a woman remark, “That’s what’s wrong with this country. Kids today don’t even know how to pray. Asking God for ice cream for dessert. Why I never.” Hearing this, my son burst into tears and asked me, “Did I do it wrong? Is God mad at me?” As I held him and assured him that he had done a terrific job and God was certainly not mad at him, an elderly gentleman approached the table. He winked at my son and said, “I happen to know that God thought it was a great prayer.” “Really?”, my son asked. “Cross my heart,” the man replied, and then in a theatrical whisper added (indicating the woman whose remarks had started this whole thing), too bad she never asks God for ice cream. A little ice cream is good for the soul sometimes.” Naturally, I bought my kids ice cream at the end of the meal. My son stared at his ice cream for a moment and then did something I will remember for the rest of my life. He picked up his sundae and without a word, walked over to place it in front of the woman. With a big smile, he told her, “Here, this is for you. Ice cream is good for the soul sometimes, and my soul is good already.”
