Part 4: Powerless
One of the fundamental indicators of Christian maturity is one that continues to be a major struggle for most of us. If we're going to follow Jesus, it is imperative to wrestle with our relationship to power.

Scripture: Colossians 3:18-4:1

Ice Breaker
If you could create the perfect meal, what dishes would be on the menu?

Discussion Questions
1. Read Colossians 3:18-4:1. What questions does this passage raise for you? Which parts of this passage do you struggle with? What do you think the main point is? Can you remember any of the context (from the book of Colossians, elsewhere in the Bible, and in the teaching of Jesus) that helps us understand this passage?

2. One of the main points on Sunday was that 'submission is a Christian thing.' What are some ways the idea of submitting to others has been/can be/is abused or used in negative ways? Can you describe what you think healthy mutual submission looks like? Are there ways that you can think of, that would help to make sure that relationships incorporated the healthy version and avoided the dangerous/unhealthy version?

3. On Sunday, Dave challenged us to ask and answer the following question to people around us: 'How can I serve you?' How do you think taking this approach could change one or more areas of your life (eg: marriage, parenting, work relationships, friendships, etc.)?

Moving Forward
Is there one thing from this series that has stuck with you or stood out to you? Share with the group one thing you've learned or been reminded of and how you are applying it to your life.