The Keeper of My Soul
By Michael Orr

This thing I have decided, to give up all control,
To the One who sees and knows all things, the keeper of my soul.
His wisdom shines around me, His knowledge is complete,
With but a single word He causes darkness to retreat.

I know I've had my moments, when fear assails resolve,
But I've yet to face an issue that His presence couldn't solve.
He strengthens me and keeps me, He leads me through the gate,
And when the path is too obscure He causes me to wait.

His hand is full of guidance, His eyes are full of love,
His blessings are abundant, poured upon me from above.
In mercy and in kindness, He treats me as His own,
And when He walks before I will never be alone.

Oh Perfect God of Goodness, I offer you my praise,
Please keep me in your grace and peace for all my fleeting days.
Redeem me and restore me, may all I am be whole,
For I entrust it all to you, the keeper of my soul.
