Vision from the Elders

We are in the business of life changes. It is our prayer and hope that through worship, church community, encouragement, and engaging our neighbors we will be God's hands and feet as He opens the doors for us to share the Gospel and become more like Jesus.

Resurrection

By Michael Orr

I was dead in sin and grief, lacking even base belief,
I had no hope of life within, so burdened by the weight of sin.
But then I saw a nail-pierced hand, pull me out and help me stand,
For through your blood I found correction through your perfect resurrection.

I took the plunge in water buried, and in my heart the cross I carried,
Dying to the world's old rot, now life anew by grace begot.
For You were dead and buried too, in three days brought to life anew,
To pave the way through God's affection and offer me your resurrection.

My sinful life was laid to rest with every blot I now detest,
Created now to point the light to those still in the dark of night.
My purpose changed, my spirit whole, to serve the Savior of my soul,
Now pressing on to love's perfection I find within your resurrection.

And though this life is incomplete until up in the sky we meet,
I still rejoice in this each day, that your ascension paved the way.
Through Spirit bound and sealed I run until the setting of the sun,
For under your divine protection, I place my all in resurrection.
