Part 2: From Worry to Peace
One of the most common experiences associated with finances is worry. A lot of us struggle with this. We know that worrying doesn't help but we can't stop. So, what can we do to experience less worry and more peace?

Ice Breaker
Do you tend to be a worrier? What are the kinds of things that you worry about? Are there circumstances that make you worry more than normal?

Discussion Questions
1. Read Luke 12:13-21. What do you think the point of this story is? Why do you think Jesus tells this story? How might it apply to us today?

2. Read Luke 12:22-32. Why do you think Jesus follows the previous teaching with this story? Talk about what Jesus says about worrying. Why does he say we shouldn't worry? What are the illustrations he uses? What do they tell us about God's character?

3. Verse 30 says that the concerns about survival and resources dominate the thoughts of many people. Can you relate to that? What is that experience like? How does it feel?

4. Jesus invites people to 'look at' or 'consider' the ravens and the lilies. That term means to observe or meditate on something. On Sunday, Dave challenged us to take some slow and quiet time to consider nature, scripture, and Jesus. Is this sort of practice something that you currently do? What are the challenges associated with doing this on a regular basis?

Moving Forward
Could you set a goal to spend some time in meditation, rather than letting worries dominate your thoughts? Share your plan, encourage, and pray for one another.
