

Cathedral Summer Festival of
Sacred Music 2024

SUNDAYS AT 10:30 AM

August 4 - Timely Revelation

A celebration of spiritual revelation, that flash of insight that comes as a gift from the Source Incomprehensible. Featuring a few Miles-Grenzberg originals about spiritual beings living in the material world, plus some classic inspirational traditional singalongs, and even a Lady Gaga anthem celebrating diversity!

August 11 - Halleyluia!

Featuring the music of Paul Halley, with long time friends of the Cathedral music community - soloist Marcus Mosely, supported by Bass player Laurence Mollerup and Percussionist Elliot Polsky. Including a time honoured Halley favourite - The Rain is Over and Gone.

August 18 - Rupert's Revels - Meet me in Venice

Highlights from the past 10 years of Summer Music Festivals, revisiting works from 17th century Italy and Germany by Monteverdi, Schütz, and Chiara Margarita Cozzolani. With curators Lucy Smith, soprano and Jacob Gramit, baritone; featuring Chloe Meyers, violin and friends!

August 25 - Rupert's Revels - Music for the Sun King

Highlights from the past 10 years of Summer Festivals, featuring regal music from the Court of Versailles by Moulinié & Dumont. With curators Lucy Smith, soprano and Jacob Gramit, baritone; featuring Chloe Meyers, violin, and friends!
