Summary

The sermon focuses on the transformative power of Jesus and the importance of stepping out of our comfort zones to follow God's calling. It highlights the story of Peter and Cornelius from Acts 10, where Peter learns that God's love and salvation are for all people, not just the Jews. The message encourages believers to be open to new directions, people, and places, and to be sensitive to the Holy Spirit's guidance.

Intro Prayer

Heavenly Father, we come before You with open hearts and minds, ready to receive what You have for us today. Help us to be sensitive to Your Holy Spirit and willing to step out of our comfort zones. May we be transformed by Your love and be instruments of Your grace in the lives of others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Ice Breaker

What is one new thing you tried recently that was outside of your comfort zone?

Key Verses
1. Acts 10:34-35
2. Acts 10:15
3. Acts 10:44-45

Questions

1. What stood out to you the most in today's sermon?
2. How do you typically respond when God asks you to step out of your comfort zone?
3. Why do you think Peter initially resisted God's command in his vision?
4. Have you ever experienced a time when God used you to answer someone else's prayer? Share your experience.
5. What are some common comfort zones that Christians might struggle with today?
6. How can we practice being more sensitive to the Holy Spirit's guidance in our daily lives?
7. What does it mean to you that God shows no favoritism and accepts people from every nation?
8. What steps can you take this week to embrace new directions, people, or places as God leads you?

Life Application

This week, challenge yourself to step out of your comfort zone in one specific area of your life. Whether it's reaching out to someone new, volunteering in a ministry, or spending extra time in prayer, take a step of faith and see how God works through you.

Key Takeaways

1. God's love and salvation are for everyone, regardless of background or nationality.
2. Stepping out of our comfort zones allows us to experience God's blessings and be a blessing to others.
3. Being sensitive to the Holy Spirit's guidance is crucial for following God's will.
4. Obedience to God, even when it doesn't make sense, leads to transformation and growth.
5. God often uses us to answer the prayers of others, and we should be open to being His instruments.

Ending Prayer

Lord, thank You for the message we received today. Help us to apply it to our lives and to be willing to step out of our comfort zones for Your glory. Guide us with Your Holy Spirit and use us to make a difference in the lives of those around us. We trust in Your plans and Your timing. In Jesus' name, Amen.