Title: But If Not

MESSAGE

We all need to be students of the Bible. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego knew who they were and knew who they followed. We can say anything we want to say, but when we are challenged and tested it will prove who we really are and if we're convicted to the things we say we are. Real Christianity isn't about nice words but action. Real Christianity is shown under pressure. The king in those days had the power of life and death. They still chose to respectfully deny to worship him. The Hebrew boys refused to compromised. They were motivated by what was right. Many are swayed very easily, these individuals were never convicted in the first place.

Joshua 24:15 "... But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." You don't have to be mean about it, but you can say I don't worship other people's gods. You can pray but I won't pray to them with you. When you display that faith & confidence you discover who you are in His presence.

God can and is able but he may not save us. We are designed to preserve our lives. To say that whether I live or die I won't bow down, goes against our natural instincts. To go against our instincts shows our faith.
