NEW & CONTINUING CLASSES

Hope That Lives – Lessons from I & II Peter – Room 6

Teacher: Tom Montgomery

In a variety of situations, we often use the expression, "I'm hoping for the best." But, there's a big difference in simply hoping for something and hoping in Someone, especially when that Someone will absolutely deliver what He has promised. Peter has found "living hope" in Someone and he wants to share that hope and how it can change our lives.

La Misión Tiene Una Iglesia – Habitación 5

Facilitador: Frank Meza

En Septiembre comenzamos una nueva clase, titulada: La Misión tiene una iglesia. El propósito de la clase es reflexionar sobre la misión de Dios dada a la iglesia y como esta se refleja en nuestro diario caminar con Dios, llevándonos a una vida practica del evangelio de Dios, amando, conectado y haciendo la diferencia.

Young Families' Group – Room 4

Group Discussion

Each Sunday young families join for a time of community, sharing, and fellowship. The group will make the decision as to what topic is discussed.

Appreciating Rainbows When your Perspective is in Black and White – FLC Cafeteria

Teachers: Todd Austin & Mike Hayes

The continuing study of Christ's teachings on life that shape or reshape our perspectives.

Youth Group - Room 7 (Beginning October 13th)

Teachers: Nancy Roach, Matt Ensor, Lance Fittro, & Daniel Hernandez

The girls will be learning about Jesus' perspective of women in the gospels. The boys will be learning about Jesus' life through the gospel of John. In addition, the youth group will participate in various services such as: A/V Booth, Greeting, Communion Prep, and Coffee Ministry.

Men's Wednesday 5:30 AM Group

Facilitator: Preston Pratt

Each Wednesday a group of men gather at 5:30am to participate in communal spiritual formation and discuss a book study or share about their walks with Jesus.
