Part 3: The "Wrong" Perspective
Waiting is hard. Especially when our circumstances are difficult. One of the lessons we are taught in the season of Advent is how to learn with patience, endurance, and hope.

Discussion Questions
1. Have you ever had to wait a long time for something that you really wanted? What was it? What did it feel like to do that? Did you learn anything by having to wait rather than getting what you wanted quickly?

2. We are in the season of Advent. It is a reminder that we are waiting for Jesus to come again. What are some of the things that you look forward to changing when Jesus returns? (ie: What are we waiting for as we wait for Jesus?)

3. Read John 1:1-5. What does this passage tell us about who Jesus would turn out to be? What do you think is the 'darkness' that is referred to? How does the light overcome the darkness? What should that encourage us to anticipate when it comes to what Jesus accomplishes for the world?

Moving Forward
Are there areas of your life that feel 'dark'? What are you waiting for God to do in those areas of your life? How is this passage encouraging in that area?

Pray for and encourage one another!
