Discussion Questions

Psalm 54

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

Have you ever struggled with what to pray or how to pray? How is David's prayer in this Psalm a model of how we can respond to trials?

How does this Psalm teach us to handle betrayal? What can we learn from David's response?

What aspects of God's character does David proclaim and remember in his hardship? See vs. 4-5

David praises God in the midst of his trial. Does this surprise you? Why is this important? How is it possible to thank God when the answer has not yet come?

Why is remembering God's past faithfulness essential to standing strong in the Lord? How does remembering God's faithfulness affect our faith?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?