2. All persons elected Lay Members of Synod by the Vestry of a Parish shall be members of the congregation or congregations in that Parish and at least one of such persons shall be a Churchwarden. In electing other Lay Members, Parishes shall have regard to representation of both sexes and of young persons in the Church, provided always that such persons are available and otherwise qualified to serve.

When a Parish has more than one congregation and the number of Laity Members to which the Parish is entitled cannot be allotted to each congregation without exceeding the limit for the Parish, then the Lay Representatives shall be divided among the congregations as evenly as may be in proportion to the number of units in each congregation, or as may be otherwise agreed upon by the Incumbent and all the Churchwardens of the Parish.
 5. Lay Members of Synod shall be elected for a period of two years. In the case of a first election, one Lay Member shall be elected for two years and one for one year.
