

April 13 – Palm Sunday

The day starts with shouts and hosannas...Jesus the Messiah has come to town! But just like us the crowds in Jerusalem have a hard time staying with Jesus in the places he wants to go...and the ending is very different from the beginning... Join us this Palm Sunday as we step into a week set apart for us to experience the depth of God's love for us in some pretty profound and amazing ways.

Questions:

- What types of experiences or things in your life do you like to "skip over" OR make as short as possible? What kind of circumstances make you feel uncomfortable?
- How might your answers to the above questions hinder your ability to walk to the cross with Jesus?
- Challenge yourself this week to not "skip over" Holy Week, but find ways to engage with Jesus' journey from the palms to the table, to the garden, to the grave - so the celebration on Easter is even more meaningful!
