Missionary Corner

Dear praying friends,

Thank you for following our ministry, thank you for your prayers and thank you for your support in every way. We were blessed by receiving so very many prayer encouragements. You sent us words of scripture, visions, words of hope and trust that God would come through...and He did. You stayed engaged in our struggle and expressed your concern. You made us know and understand that we are not alone!!!

Suzanne has continued to improve. We have been able to go for walks and I was able to leave her and go to teach at the Family DTS in Mexico. I am taking two teams of house builders coming from Oregon and Hawaii. Many of them have been with me in years past...it's like a reunion!!! And it's going to be like a home-going for me since I had to forgo two trips to MX: one in March and one in April.

In July we are hoping to host our grand-daughters (Malia 15, and Tessa 13) who will come to MX with us. We are eagerly anticipating that adventure. They always have known that Baba (that's me) goes to MX to build houses but it will be a super blessing for them to actually experience it with us.

Here is a nugget that I was recently blessed with:
"God spoke today in flowers, and I, who was waiting on words, almost missed the conversation." Ingrid Goff-Maidoff

God is a communicator who expresses Himself in more ways than we can count and in more ways than we can anticipate.

May you sense His blessings, whether in words or flowers...don't miss it!

Lots of love,

asher
