A Message from The Pastor

BY PROPHET JONATHAN

Your life's purpose isn't separate from your struggles—it's often revealed right in the middle of them. The Psalmist knew this truth deep in his bones when he wrote, "For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness" (Psalm 18:28). Think about that for a moment. In our darkest times, God doesn't always show us the whole road ahead—He gives us just enough light for the next step, asking us to trust Him for the step after that.

I've walked through some valleys myself, and I can tell you what Isaiah 43:2 promises is real: "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee." Notice God doesn't say "if" you pass through waters, but "when." Hard times will come, but listen—you won't face them alone, and they won't overcome you.

Remember what James tells us: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally" (James 1:5). God isn't stingy with guidance—He's eager to show you the way when you come to Him honestly.

Life has seasons—we all know that. Some are wonderful, some are challenging. But through every single one, our God never changes. As Hebrews 13:8 puts it simply and powerfully, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever." That's something you can plant your feet on when everything else is shifting sand.

God is walking with you in every season!

SUCCESSFUL BAPTISM SERVICE

We rejoice in the incredible time we had during our Baptism Service and Resurrection Sunday celebration! It was a powerful weekend filled with worship, fellowship, and joy. We broke bread together, welcomed new faces, and embraced families into our church community. Thank you to everyone who joined us—what a blessing it was to celebrate new life in Christ and the hope of His resurrection together!

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICE

Celebrate the beauty and strength of motherhood with us on Sunday, May 11th! We'll honor mothers of all kinds—those present, those who have gone to be with the Lord, spiritual mothers, and those waiting in hope. Expect an exciting service filled with God's presence, love, special gifts, and a time to reflect on God's goodness.

Let's capture this special day together—we can't wait to see you there!
