RESPOND

1. One person has wisely observed, “The Bible consistently presents God as the True Creator, whose power, wisdom, and purpose are evident in the universe and human life. This foundational truth shapes the Christian understanding of God's nature, humanity's identity, and the ultimate hope of redemption and restoration.” biblehub.com/topical/g/god_as_the_true_creator. How do we respond to Our God as Creator? In what ways might we be rebelling against Our Creator who has revealed Himself to us?
2. What attribute of God Our Creator (of the four we highlighted) impress you the most about our amazing God? Why is this attribute so amazing to you?
3. Are we in danger of creating God in our own image? As you read your Bibles this week, make a list of the things God’s Word reveals to us about Himself. QUOTE: “Theology is not about what we think, like, or choose. It is about what God has said about himself and about us” (Joel Beeke).
