3. How did the children react when Ms. Elliott began “making a distinction between persons?”
4. List some ways we are quick to διεκρίνοντο others:
5. What does 1 Corinthians 13 tell us we are when we act that way?
6. How did Peter deal with the criticism he faced?
7. What did Peter learn about the way God wanted him to treat both Jew and Gentile?
8. What is true about you, me, and every other human being?
9. What does God want for all of us?
10. Who will receive his forgiveness?
11. Who have we been διεκρίνοντο about? In your prayers this week, ask Jesus to help us love the people around us as much as he loved us – so much that he was willing to die for us.
