The Collect of the Day

The Proclamation of the Word Please be seated

The First Reading

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

(2 Timothy 4:1-8)

Gospel Proclamation Please stand if you are comfortable doing so

Gradual: "Laudate Omnes Gentes" Blue 314

Gospeler: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Gospeler: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

(John 21:15-19)

The Communion of the People

All who seek God and a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Gluten-free wafers are available; please make your need known to the priest.

If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of receiving Communion, you may indicate your choice by crossing your hands across your chest.

Those who wish to have Holy Communion brought to them at their seat should notify a sides-person.

Our new Primate is Bishop Shane Parker of the Diocese of Ottawa. For many years, Bishop Shane served as the Rector of Christ Church Cathedral and Dean of the Diocese of Ottawa before becoming bishop in 2020. He is a leader of deep prayer, integrity and joy, who will lead our Church into a new chapter with faithfulness and imagination.

"We ought to celebrate the day of such great martyrs, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, with a much greater congregation. This day has been made holy by the passion of the blessed apostles Peter and Paul. We are, therefore, not talking about some obscure martyrs. For their voice has gone forth to all the world, and their message to the ends of the earth (Ps 19:4). These martyrs realized what they taught: they pursued justice, they confessed the truth, they died for it." (St. Augustine of Hippo, circa 416-420)
