A Message from The Pastor

BY PROPHET JONATHAN DAVILA

Over the past few weeks, you may have felt the weight of fatigue—emotionally, physically, and spiritually. We have seen a noticeable shift: attendance has dipped, hearts seem heavier, and conversations have carried the echoes of loss, busyness, and weariness. These moments are real, and they’re challenging. But they are also the very moments where the call to stand becomes most urgent.

When the children of Israel were trapped between the Red Sea and Pharaoh’s army, their fear nearly overcame their faith. They cried out, questioning everything—God’s plan, Moses’ leadership, even their own decisions. But in the middle of chaos, Moses issued a divine command: “Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord.” It wasn’t a strategy for escape—it was a call to trust.

We, too, are being called to stand—not because the pressure has let up, but because God is with us in the middle of it. To stand still doesn’t mean to do nothing. It means to refuse to retreat. It means to plant our feet in faith and fix our eyes on the God who delivers, who heals, who restores.

This is not the time to shrink back. It’s the time to press in. To stand in prayer. To stand in worship. To stand for one another. The very presence of God is still with us—guiding, strengthening, and reminding us that we are never alone. His presence gives us the power to persevere.

Let this be a season where we, as a church family, recommit to standing strong—not just when it’s easy, but especially when it’s challenging. God is not finished with us, and what’s ahead is still greater than what’s behind.

CLARION CALL TO PRAYER

Jesus commanded his people to watch and pray. As we gather together on one accord with prayer and worship, God is going to move in an unprecedented way. Come on out and wail, travail, surrender and offer up sweet incense of prayer to our Mighty God! This event will be hosted by our very own Minister La Shanda Baladez! Let's support and show up to receive all that God has for us!

BACK-TO-SCHOOL BLESSING GIVEAWAY

We're blessing our community as students head back to school, August 9th! Join us for our Back-to-School Blessings Giveaway—a free event where children can receive backpacks filled with school supplies (while supplies last). There will be smiles, support, and an opportunity to get ready for the school year with confidence and love.

- ✨ No registration required
- ✏ Supplies available while supplies last
- ♥ All are welcome—come early!
