• Caring for someone you love?

Taking care of loved ones, and even playing a role in the care of friends, can be a profoundly rewarding way to honour our relationship with them and to be of service. The caretaking role can also be isolating, exhausting, and scary. Connection with others who are living similar challenges gives us a way to process the difficult experiences, to celebrate the good ones, and to find access to other resources in the community. You are not the only one who finds it challenging, overwhelming, and at times almost impossible.

A small group of parishioners are contemplating forming a caregivers' support group in the parish to provide support to one another and to share information in a private and safe environment.

If you're interested, contact Rev. Juli by E-Mail jmallett@bc.anglican.ca, as she would be supporting the group in becoming established. The group is open to peers outside of the parish on an invitation basis.

Greeting

In this time and place, we gather on the ancestral territories of SENĆOŦEN and HUL'Q'UMI'NUM'-speaking Coast Salish peoples.

From many places and peoples we come to this house in prayer.

In this time and place, we are not alone,

In this time and place, we are not alone,
for the Risen Jesus stands in our midst.

Blessing

Psalm 104. 25-35, 37b

Music from The Canadian Psalter 1963

O Lord how manifold / are your / works!
In wisdom you have made them all; the / earth is /
full of your / creatures.
Yonder is the / great wide / sea
With its living things too many to number, crea-/tures
both / small and / great.

There move the ships and there is that Le-/via-/than,
Which you have / made for the / sport of / it.
All of them / look to / you
To give / them their / food in due / season.

You give it to them; they / gather / it;
You open your hand and / they are / filled with good / things.
You hide your face and they are / terri-/fied;
You take away their breath, and they / die and re-/ /turn to their / dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they / are cre-/ated;
And so you re-/new the / face of the / earth.
May your glory, O Lord, en-/dure for / ever;
May you re-/joice in / all these / works;

You look at the earth / and it / trembles;
You touch the / mountains / and they / smoke.
I will sing to the Lord as long / as I / live;
I will praise my God / while I / have my / being.

May these words of / mine please / you
I / will re-/joice in the / Lord.
Bless the Lord, / O my / soul.
Bless the / Lord, Hal-/lelu-/jah!

Breaking of Bread

Creator of all,
you gave us golden fields of wheat,
whose many grains we have gathered
and made into this one bread.

So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth
into your kingdom.

The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Thanks be to God.

We believe and trust in Jesus Christ, his Son.

We believe and trust in the Holy Spirit.

We believe and trust in the Three in One.

Prayers of the People

Confession and Absolution

BAS p.191

We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

silence

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us,
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

The celebrant offers the absolution.

your beloved creation we sing:

SANCTUS

**SEE INSERT...*

The celebrant invokes God's presence here and now.

We praise you, Source of all, for the living Word: Jesus
Born in poverty; a child refugee, a worker with his hands.

.... Entering into the mystery of faith we call:

Come, Source of life.
Come, transforming Word.
Come, Creator Spirit.

With his sacred presence unbounded by space and time,
we offer to you this bread and cup.

.... Glory and honour to you Triune God, dynamic of love,
complete and perfect unity, now and in all ages.

Amen.
