God is working

By Michael Orr

God is working,
how thunderous the sound,
When Might of the Ages
is always around!
His masterful plans
far beyond comprehension,
Frames the path and the passion in my heart's rapt attention.

God is working,
how great is the news,
With so wondrous a purpose
how could any refuse?
None on earth can replace Him,
None in Heaven compares,
To the Glory of Glories,
To the Fatger who cares.

God is working,
Son and Spirit in rhythm,
In the cross carried mystery,
And a darkly shaped prism.
Though the veil has been lifted,
Holy wonder still shakes,
Through the Church's foundation,
And the vessels He makes.

God is working,
Both without and within,
Immersed and Invited,
As he peels back our sin,
Pours His mercy in messes,
Springing life from our graves,
Holds our Alpha, Omega,
By the story that saves.

God is working,
Pass the bread and the fish,
To the soul starving masses,
And He'll raise every dish.
For the pillar and fire,
And the shape of a dove,
Is the God who works in us,
Both below and above.
