The Clouds Are Parting

By Michael Orr

Dread comes swiftly, storm and sky,
Cloudy, cluttered, darkness nigh.
Fears so vast with doubt rolled in,
Fast and fury toss and spin...But

The clouds are parting if you look,
Just beyond in daylight's nook.
Faith remains above unsteady,
Hope remains there, at the ready.

Still, do storm clouds pull and gather,
Whispered in the "Would you rather?"
Bloated falsehoods shock and thunder,
Tearing Holy hearts asunder...But...

The clouds are parting if you feel,
The steady beat of "Peace Be Still."
For lie and lustful bend the knee
To Master of the storm and sea.

Now does darkest deal the blow,
The haunt of death and "I don't know,."
For clouds are endless till the last,
When bold redemption's song holds fast....For...

The clouds are parting evermore,
When bright eternal comes to pour,
Sundrops on forever's day,
In the land of sunshine far away.
