

Will To Do God's Will

Acts 28:16,17

On his way to Rome, the ship that Paul was aboard encountered a severe storm, and the men had to unload some of the cargo. The ship would eventually be destroyed, but Paul assured them that no one would perish. They landed safely.

When Paul finally reached Rome, he was allowed to live alone in a rented house with a soldier guarding him. He preached the gospel morning and evening. Paul was doing the will of God.

Paul went through many trials, but he submitted himself to God. He may have been a prisoner of man, but he was a child of God.

Like Paul, we will face trials and tribulations in this life, but Jesus said be of good cheer because he had overcome the world. God's timing is not our timing, and there is a time and a season for everything.

As soldiers in the army of the Lord, we must adorn ourselves with spiritual armor. We must be prepared to do battle with the enemy, so that His will is manifested in our lives.
