Opening Prayer

Liturgist

Call to Worship John 1: 1-5

Liturgist

L: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

P: He was in the beginning with God.

L: All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

P: In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

L: The light shines in the darkness.

P: And the darkness has not overcome it.

All: Amen!

Sermon Scripture. Colossians 1: 15-23 (NLT)

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Prayer of the Christian Community | Lord's Prayer

Great are you, O God, and greatly to be praised. Before we were born, you knew our inward parts and did knit them together in our mother's wombs. Our thoughts of you could exceed the sand and they would not suffice to exhaust your wonder. We marvel at the extent of your wisdom and graciousness as we bow down to worship your glorious name. We lift up one voice as we pray the prayer that Jesus taught us to pray...
