

Biblical Principles for Time Management

Introduction:

- ◆ Begin with a prayer for guidance and understanding.
- ◆ Share your reasons for wanting to study time management from a biblical perspective.
- ◆ Emphasize the importance of using time wisely to serve God and others.

Scripture:

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 NIV

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

- ◆ Read and discuss this well-known passage about the seasons of life.
- ◆ How does it relate to time management?

1. Psalms 139:16 NIV
Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.
2. Jeremiah 29:11 NIV
For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.
3. Romans 12:2 NIV
Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.
4. Psalms 90:12 NIV
Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
5. John 14:21 NIV
Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."
6. Matthew 22:37-38 NIV
Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment.
7. Proverbs 3:5-6 NIV
Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

8. 1 Timothy 5:8 NIV

Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

9. Colossians 3:23-24 NIV

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

10. Romans 14:12 NIV

So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God.

11. Proverbs 27:17 NIV

As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.

12. Philippians 3:14 NIV

I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

13. Proverbs 21:5 NIV

The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty.
