Beth-El "Cultivating Peace" Summer Speaker Series Continues July 6

The Beth-El series co-sponsored by PPJPC will have close to one speaker a week for the rest of the summer. On Sunday, July 6, Nooshin Sadeghsamimi, an anthropologist and ethnographic filmmaker in a post-doc program at UCCS will examine how discourses of religion influence inclusion and exclusion.

On July 12, a special Saturday presentation at 1 p.m. will feature Elaine Enns and Ched Myers, the authors of "Healing Haunted Histories." Enns and Myers will speak the following day at the regular Sunday service. The series continues through July and August with such speakers as Rachel Harding (July 27), Osheta Moore, Mike Martin of RAW Tools, Michael Williams, Father John Dear, and Shane Claiborne. All events in the series will take place at 9:30 on Sundays at Beth-El's main location at 4625 Ranch Road, near Union and Academy. Pre-registration is important for the Saturday July 12 event. Keep an eye out for specific details on each week and send us a message with any questions!
