Communication Column

Today is a big day in the life of our church. This day has arrived after a lot of hard, good, and thoughtful work by the pastor search committee. I am grateful for each member of the search committee who has given so much of their time. A big thank you goes to Garrett Hensley (Chairman), Jennifer Chambless, Zach Dyer, Lisa Mullins and Mick Myers Alternates: Sam Heinbach and Miriam Kibelbek. I appreciate how seriously the search committee has taken their work and how they have wisely sought to discern God’s will. Now the entire church has the opportunity to prayerfully discern God’s will. This is also a big day for our prospective pastor and his family. My prayers are with you all.

During an interim period, some churches lose momentum, give less, become less engaged, and wait to do ministry until the new pastor arrives. That has not been the case with Tusculum Baptist Church. I have been impressed with and grateful for the church staff and deacons who have continued to work and serve so faithfully. I am also proud to see how the church has not backed off of worship, service, community building, and ministry to students. God is a work through each member and each part of the body of Christ.

Now I look forward to seeing what more God is going to do through Tusculum Baptist Church with a new full-time pastor leading and equipping us to fulfill the Great Commission.
