

Weekly Word – For Sunday, July 27, 2025

Worship this Week:

Almost no one brags of their prayer life. Even the disciples asked Jesus to help them. Join us this Sunday as we deepen our prayer roots. In a stressed-out world, prayer is God's way of giving us perspective, strength and courage to the face the challenges of today. Prayer is not an excuse not to act and use our gifts, but is a powerful, if often misunderstood gift from God. Summer choir meets this Sunday at 8:30 am so if you like to sing, join them! Summer worship is at 9:30 am and Coffee Fellowship is at 10:30 am.

We also will need help at 11:00 am to help set up VBS sets and for the funeral reception for Marjorie Faulks on Sunday afternoon. Many hands make light work. If you can move a chair, you can help, and we need your help this Sunday.
